CSMG 2018 Conference Profile

The central gathering of Catholic social ministry leaders in the United States:

- Organized by the USCCB Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development in collaboration with 4 other USCCB departments and 16 other national Catholic organizations.
- More than 500 leaders expected to participate in CSMG 2018 are drawn from among bishops and clergy, diocesan social action directors, other relevant diocesan staff, representatives of major national and international Catholic organizations, prominent, emerging, and diverse leaders in parish social ministry, volunteer networks, and university faith and justice programs.
- Informative plenary presentations, briefings, and workshops address current topics essential to our various ministries and better prepare us to meet present and future challenges.
- Excellent networking opportunities with other social ministry professionals from across the country.

Theme: Building Community: A Call to the Common Good

CSMG serves to equip leaders with the knowledge, relationships, and skills to build community for the common good. The theme of the 2018 Catholic Social Ministry Gathering is rooted in our commitment to promoting communities that foster peace and justice at home and abroad. More than 500 Catholic leaders will gather to step forward in faith for justice, peace, and the common good, and lift their voices to Congress during a visit to the U.S. Capitol.

Top reasons to participate in CSMG 2018 as an exhibitor or sponsor:

- Engage 500 current and emerging Catholic leaders who are active in diverse fields of ministry.
- Receive up-to-date briefings on the Catholic Church's responses to pressing domestic and global challenges relating to poverty, war, injustice and the promotion of human life and dignity.
- Learn how the Church continues to deepen and extend its rich tradition of social teaching and engagement for the common good, especially in light of the New Evangelization and the teaching of Pope Francis.
- Understand the strategic importance of Catholic social teaching and the integration of social ministry and advocacy in the mission and identity of a broad range of Catholic institutions and organizations.
- Demonstrate your organization's commitment to the social mission of the Catholic Church, and active support for a society and world more reflective of Gospel values.

CSMG is committed to program quality.

Top experts in matters of Church and civil society gather at CSMG every year. Recent speakers have included notable figures such as Cardinal Peter Turkson (Pontifical Council for Justice & Peace); Dr. Maryann Cusimano Love (Catholic University); Rev. Larry Snyder (former President, Catholic Charities USA); Dr. Carolyn Woo (former President, CRS); Dr. Arturo Chavez (Mexican American Catholic College); Cardinal Sean O'Malley, OFM Cap. It does not and shall not be construed, interpreted, or described in any way to constitute approval, endorsement, or recommendation of exhibitors or their products, or in any manner create an agency relationship between USCCB or CSMG and exhibitors.
- Breaking-down exhibits: Exhibits break-down should not begin before 5:00 p.m. on Monday, February 5, 2018 and all exhibits must be taken down no later than 12:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 6, 2018.
