Goal for the Life Night
The goal for this night is to help teens understand the role and effects of Holy Orders for bishops, priests and deacons. This night will also give teens practical tools to discern their own vocation. Finally, this night will give the teens an opportunity to affirm and appreciate the priests and deacons in the parish.

Life Night at a Glance
It is very important that your parish priest(s) and deacon(s) are present this night. Be sure to invite them to come to Life Night well in advance. The night begins with a game that will help the teens get to know the priests a little better. The game will lead into a teaching on the Sacrament of Holy Orders. During the break the guys and girls will split up into different groups. The girls will discuss the universal priesthood given to us in Baptism. The guys will discuss the sacramental priesthood. At the end of the discussion, the teens will have an opportunity to write an affirmation letter to the priests or deacons thanking them for their service. The Send will give the teens who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life an opportunity to be prayed over by the priests and in return the teens will then pray over the priests of the parish for strength and renewal.

Environment
The environment for this night is very simple yet subtle. Hang floor-length black sheets across the whole front of the meeting room. Down the center drape one white cloth stripe. The idea is to make the environment look like an enormous priest collar. Have a large cross and a few chairs or stools for the priests to sit on. There will also need to be another meeting space that can be used during the girls/guys sessions.

GATHER 15 Minutes

Welcome and Introductions (5 min)
The youth minister gathers the group together and welcomes everyone to the Life Night. He/she introduces any teens at Life Night for the first time.

Know Your Clergy Game (10 min)
(Disclaimer – you will need at least two priests and/or deacons from your parish for this game, but if you can get more – even better!)
The youth minister should ask for four volunteers (one from each class). Give each contestant some sort of noisemaker—bell, whistle, kazoo, etc. Explain that many of us don’t know much about the priests and deacons who serve us but it’s time we learned a little bit about them. The youth minister should read a fact about one of the priests or deacons without giving his name. The first teen to guess the correct priest or deacon will get a point. Have a Core member record the points. Make sure the facts span the priest’s whole life. For example: “This person’s favorite TV show is Lost” or “in high school, this person was a star pitcher on the baseball team.” If possible, try to discover some really interesting and funny facts about the priests that the teens will relate to. If time allows, have the priest tell a story corresponding with the fact. After 10-12 facts, award the teen with the most correct answers a prize.

PROCLAIM 12 Minutes

The Party: Episode 7 (2 min)
This semester features a reoccurring video series called “The Party.” Each Life Night of this semester features a new episode in which a teen hosts a party and the guests are personifications of the seven sacraments. These short videos are designed to introduce the teaching for each Life Night in the semester. In Episode 7, the sixth guest, Preston (representing Holy Orders), arrives. The person giving the talk can point out the following ways that he represents the sacrament:
The name “Preston” – stands for Priest – Old English for “priest town”

• Laying down at the door – those receiving Holy Orders lay prostrate
• Wearing apron and came to serve – priesthood is a role of service
• Jesse hands him bread to pass out – The priest brings us the Eucharist
• Preston goes through how often he “sees” each sacrament

Teaching (10 min)
The purpose of this teaching is to help the teens better understand Holy Orders and how this sacrament impacts the life of the Church. It should also address some of the common questions about the sacrament (i.e. celibacy, male-only, etc.). If possible, see if a priest or deacon from the parish can give this teaching.

Teaching can be found on pages 87-90.

BREAK 35 Minutes

Guy/Girl Rap Sessions (35 min)
Break the group up into guys and girls rap sessions. The goal of these rap sessions is to discuss the priesthood as it applies to each gender and give the teens an opportunity to ask questions. The girls will discuss their call to the universal priesthood and the guys will discuss their call to the sacramental priesthood. If possible, have at least one priest at each rap session. Begin each group in prayer thanking God for the gift of the sacrament.

GIRLS
1. Universal Priesthood
   Start the session with an introduction similar to this. Be sure to adapt as necessary for your group.

   Many girls feel like a night on Holy Orders doesn’t really apply to us since we cannot be priests. Well, I have good news for you! The priesthood does apply to us as women. Through our Baptism we are anointed PRIEST, prophet, and king. Each and every baptized Christian, man and woman, is called to what is known as the universal priesthood. The universal priesthood is like the sacramental priesthood in the sense that we are called to offer sacrifices and serve others in our vocation as women in our everyday life. Our universal priesthood serves the Church in just as powerful a way as the sacramental priesthood. We as women have a very unique gift to offer the Church. As women we have an example of service and sacrifice in Mary. She models for us surrender and dedication to God in the way she followed her son faithfully and brought others to him. We too are called to be a witness of faith and bring those to God through our prayers, love and witness.

   2. Discussion Questions
   Use the following questions to start a discussion. If possible, have a priest or deacon available to answer any questions from the girls.

   • What are some things that we as a part of the universal priesthood can offer as a sacrifice to serve the Church?
   • If someone asked you, how would explain why women can’t be priests in the Catholic Church?
   • What questions do you have about the Sacrament of Holy Orders?
   • How can we better serve and lift up those who serve the Church in the ordained priesthood?

   3. Affirmation Letters
   Too often the service and sacrifice of our priests goes unnoticed or unappreciated. End the large group by having all the girls write a letter of affirmation to the parish priests thanking them for their yes to God’s call in their life and for the ways they serve the parish. Give the letters to the priests at the end of the night.

GUYS
1. Sacramental Priesthood
   Start the session with an introduction similar to this. Be sure to adapt as necessary for your group.

   For many guys, the topic of priesthood is scary. We say or think things like “What if God is calling me to this?” “I don’t really want to be a priest.” “I like girls too much to be a priest.” “Priesthood is for holy people.” We start to make up our minds without knowing what the vocation is really about.
2. Priest Witness
Invite one of your priests to give a witness on his journey of becoming a priest. Be sure to have him include some of the struggles and obstacles as well as how he knew that God desired him to be a priest. Have him share how the Lord is moving in his priesthood now. Allow time at the end for the priest to answer questions from the guys.

3. Discussion Questions
Use the following questions to start a discussion:

- What are some tasks a priest gets to do that a man called to the married life or single life does not?
- How would you answer someone who asked why priest cannot get married in the Catholic Church?
- What are some of your reservations about the possibility of God calling you to the priesthood?
- How can you be more open to God’s calling for your life?

4. Affirmation Letters
Too often the service and sacrifice of our priests goes unnoticed or unappreciated. End the large group by having all the guys write a letter of affirmation to the parish priests thanking them for their yes to God’s call in their life and for the ways they serve the parish. Give the letters to the priests at the end of the night.

SEND 15 Minutes

Recap (5 min)
The youth minister should recap the night and explain that we are never too young to discern God’s calling in our lives. Prayer is essential to vocation. We need prayer to help guide us in our discernment as well as in our vocation. It is through prayer that we will find strength to embrace the vocation God has planned for us. One of the oldest ways of calling upon the Holy Spirit is the laying on of hands. This ancient action is used in both the Sacrament of Holy Orders and Confirmation. Through the line of apostolic succession we receive the same Holy Spirit that came down upon the apostles at Pentecost. It is the Holy Spirit that will guide us in our discernment of God’s will and plan for our lives.

Praying over Teens and Clergy (10 min)
Invite all the teens who are discerning a religious vocation, whether a religious sister, brother, priesthood or deaconate to come forward. Be aware that there might only be two or three teens come forward. Be sure to thank them for their openness to the calling of the Spirit in their lives. Have one of the priests lead a prayer over these teens. Ask all the other teens to extend their hands to pray with the priest. The prayer should ask for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit as a guide in the teen’s discernment. After those teens are prayed over, the youth minister should ask all the priests and deacons to come forward. Invite one or two teens to write a prayer for the priests and deacons of the parish. The prayer should ask for a strengthening of their vocation and thanksgiving for answering God’s call to the priesthood. Have all the teens extend their hands one more time and the selected teens to pray over the priests. Close the night with the Hail Mary and Ave Maria.

Community Connection
- Make sure to invite all the priests and deacons in your parish to be a part of this Life Night well in advance.
- Invite a religious sister or a woman who is discerning the religious life to share during the girls session.
- If your priest cannot stay for the guy’s breakout, invite a seminarian from the diocese to share with the guys.

Making It Work
- If you only have one priest at your parish and/or Life Night, have the Gather game be a true or false question game.
- If there is not enough time for the teens to write an affirmation letter for the priests and deacons, challenge the teens to write one at home and bring it in next week.
- Work with the teens to plan a “clergy appreciation party.” This is a great way to create connections between the teens and the clergy of the parish. Let the teens take the lead in the planning of this event.
- Follow up with any teens who came forward during the Send. Encourage them to pray and connect with a priest or nun to answer any questions about discernment.
What it is:
If you’ve been to Mass, you’ve probably noticed the gentleman in the front. He’s there for a reason. He was called by the Lord, probably a long time ago, to serve the Church in a way unlike anyone else can on this earth. He is the priest—a member of the clergy. Someone who walks in the footsteps of a continuous line of men that dates all the way back to the first century when Christ our Lord instituted the ecclesial fraternity of the Holy Priesthood. His calling in life—his vocation—is to receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

The priesthood and deaconate were instituted, as all sacraments were, by Christ. At the end of His time with His apostles, “Jesus approached and said to them, ‘All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.’” This command from the Lord was specially given to this group of believers because they were to become the first bishops of the Church. Their work in the world became instrumental in the early Church as customs were established through observing the teachings of Christ that would later develop into the sacred Tradition with which we are familiar today.

Holy Orders is a sacrament but also a vocation—an intrinsic calling by the Lord to follow and to serve in a special and complete way. As Christ washed the feet of the apostles at the Last Supper, so to does the clergy assume the role of Christ in service to the Church, even to the point that they are literally acting in the person of Christ (in persona Christi).

The idea of having a mediator between man and God is not new. We read about priests in the Old Testament. There was even an entire tribe of families in which the men were born into the role of serving the other Hebrew tribes as the temple priests. They were responsible for making the sacrificial offerings to the Lord and conducting other liturgical services.

The role of the temple priest was fulfilled in Christ and in His sacrifice on the cross in which He serves as both the man (the priest) making the offering on behalf of the people of God and as the actual sacrifice. When our parish priests celebrate the sacraments, they are

Note to the Presenter:
In each of the sacramental teachings, we will attempt to cover the sacraments in three broad topics (what it is, how it is done, how it is lived). How you choose to make these come to life is dependent on the night and on the people you have doing the teaching. This might be a semester that you choose to have teens take a part of the teaching each night. This will allow them to educate themselves (which is great!) and be creative. Perhaps they create a video teaching, perhaps it is done within a skit... let your imagination run with it!

performing a service in the place of Christ, as His representative in the sacrament as Christ is the One High Priest.

How it's done:
To become a priest or deacon, you must be ordained. Ordination is a process that is the meat of the sacrament. It essentially is the sacrament. When Jesus sent out the apostles to evangelize the world, He “said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’ And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit.’”

The Holy Spirit truly changes the soul of the man becoming a priest. It is the same sort of intrinsic change that takes place during Baptism and Confirmation—it leaves an indelible mark on the soul. Once a man is a priest; he will always be a priest. This is called a supernatural vocation because it forgoes the natural vocation of a person to find a spouse and raise a family.

During the ceremony (which is held during a Mass), the bishop lays hands upon the man who is to become ordained and says the words of ordination. At this moment the Holy Spirit seals the heart of the man and he is ordained either to the fraternity of bishops, the holy priesthood or the deaconate. For the ordination of bishops and priests, holy oil is also used.

Deacons have always helped the Church throughout her existence. They have been specially ordained men who assist the priests in their pastoral responsibilities. They are not, however, the same as a priest. They are not able to hear confessions, anoint the sick, or celebrate the Mass. They can baptize, preside over weddings, and assist in the Mass. Deacons can also be married. They are ordained into the ministry of the priest, not into the ontological fraternity.

The requirements to receive Holy Orders are simple. One must be a baptized male. The man must agree to live in celibacy for the sake of the Kingdom of God and a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

It is also important that a man is formally educated in the ways of the Church. Just as in any other job, you would require some bit of vocational training before you began to work. So to are men educated in seminaries for many years before their ordination.
Men must also want to enter into a life-long commitment to prayer and service for the sake of the Church. This requires an able mind and body in order to effectively live out the vocation. Men don’t receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders because they merely desire it; God must call them to the sacrament. It is the grace of the Holy Spirit that enables a man to live a life in service to the Church and sustain him through his journey.

How it's lived:
According to the nature of the Sacrament, Holy Orders must be lived. The life of a priest is one of service, as all Christians should embrace. However, the life of a priest is unique. He is enfolded in the apostolic lineage of the Church—acting as a “servant leader” in the person of Christ for all the Church to witness and from whom the Church benefits.

Certain ordinations are lived differently. The roles and responsibilities have already been mentioned for priests and deacons. Bishops are unique. They are more representative of the apostles. They govern the Church and are at the highest seats of Church hierarchy under the papacy. Bishops receive the fullness of the sacrament.

Why can’t women be priests?

Christ is the Bridegroom to the Church’s Bride in the great marriage feast of the Kingdom (Matthew 25:1-13). Gender has, in Christ’s teaching, a real meaning and is not simply an accident of nature. And He ought to know, since He designed the human person and made us a participant in the mystery of male and femaleness. And so every Mass is a local marriage feast of the Lamb whereby we enter into the self-sacrificial love of that cosmic Bridegroom for his Bride.

And that brings us back to the question of symbols. For as with water in baptism and wine in Eucharist, it is not that a man is superior to a woman in being “matter” for the priesthood. It is that man is a fitting symbol of the Bridegroom and woman is not. The priest is an “alter Christus” -another Christ - to the Bride in the mystery of the Mass. He does not primarily just preach or pastor. He signifies.
Ordination is a gift. It's a sacrament, and like all sacraments, it does what it symbolizes and symbolizes what it does. Symbols therefore matter—particularly those that Christ himself has instituted—and the Church has no power to alter such symbols. Christ and the apostles revealed what the “matter” of ordination should be just as they revealed what the matter of Baptism and Eucharist should be. The Church merely obeys.

Why can’t priests be married?

A priest’s job is essentially to be a priest; he has to be Christ whenever he is called upon. In the same way a mother never has a “day off” from being a mom, priests are always “on call.” Yes, it is true that they have days where they are not responsible for the day-to-day work of the parish, especially in parishes where there are several priests. There may be days full of meetings and special liturgies, but unlike a traditional, 8 to 5 job, a priest is always a priest. His vocation is complete, just as the vocation to be someone’s husband or wife is complete in and of itself.

Imagine if a priest was married and “off the clock,” so to speak. Where would his vocation lie? If someone needed confession, but he was sitting down to dinner with his wife and children, where would his duty lie? If a priest’s wife were in labor in hospital, but someone in another section of the hospital was dying and in need of Anointing of the Sick, to whom does he owe his time and fidelity? The sacrifice to the Church is all encompassing, as a husband to his wife and wife to her husband. The priest represents Christ to the members of the Church, the bride of Christ. The priest takes on the life in supreme imitation of the bridegroom. This is the meaning of his vocation.

Only priests can celebrate Mass and only priests can absolve sin, both by the power of the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus, by the power of God the Father. This special grace is given for the sake of the Bride of Christ, that they may one day go to heaven. This is a very unique and amazing role in the plan of salvation.
