

In June 2008, Catholic agencies benefiting from The Catholic Relief Services Collection partnered together to improve an existing labor bill for Haiti that will create 30,000 jobs, strengthen labor protections, and provide funds to ensure the capacity for protecting workers' rights.