Introduction

As we continue to move through this tenth year of implementing the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, we pause to reflect on how far we, as Church, have come and how far we have yet to travel. The bishops of the USCCB and their dioceses and eparchies have come a long way in dealing with the victims and survivors of clergy sexual abuse. In the past ten years over 16,000 people have come forward to tell their stories. After learning that the unthinkable did indeed happen, victim assistance resources were put into place and the journey of providing healing was begun.

The work of the Church is not yet over. She cannot sit back and say all is well, look at what we’ve done. There is still much healing to be done. Healing can take place when we, as a Church, can acknowledge the sin in our midst, ask forgiveness and pledge to protect against this sin again. This collection of Masses, prayer services, prayers and songs is to help bishops reach out to the faithful in their own dioceses/eparchies and to show atonement and offer healing.

The Church owes a debt of gratitude to the victims’ groups that didn’t quit until their voices were heard. Many of today’s bishops were not personally responsible while the abuse was occurring or first reported; however, in making sure the victims/survivors are treated compassionately, all are accountable. Many of our bishops have taken to heart the moral responsibility and obligation of making sure that our story of overcoming sin not be forgotten.

Too many of the faithful have not yet seen the work of the Church in this area. It is critical to restore their trust in the leadership of the Church. Giving concrete examples of how the diocese has reached out to the victims/survivors of sexual abuse can only help restore that trust.
I lay down my life for my sheep

John 10:15

Mass of Atonement
From Archdiocese of Milwaukee
Father of endless love,
ever caring, ever strong,
always present, always just:
You gave your only Son to save us by the blood of His cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
join to your own suffering
the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit
by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear our cries as we agonize
over the harm done to our brothers and sisters.
Breathe the spirit of wisdom into our prayers,
soothe restless hearts with hope,
steady shaken spirits with faith:
Show us the way to justice and wholeness,
enlightened by truth and enfolded in your mercy.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts, heal your people’s wounds
and transform our brokenness.
Grant us courage and wisdom, humility and grace,
so that we may act with justice and find peace in you.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Hear Us, Almighty Lord

Sign of the Cross and Greeting

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

   And, striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

   Then they continue:
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

ATONEMENT

Atonement – “at-one-ment” – comes through Jesus Christ. Through Him, in his loving act of sacrifice, we receive the gift of reconciliation with God and one another.

Reconciliation through atonement – the unity of men and women with God and with one another – is pure gift from God, not earned by us.

We are invited to respond to this grace and show gratitude for God’s work in Christ by renouncing whatever is the source of pride and sin, so that the harmony of creation may be restored.

As a Church we are called to move forward in God’s loving embrace. The Church can do so only by seeking pardon for the sins of her past that grew out of pride.

Christ stretched out His arms on the cross and reconciled us to one another and to the Father. He brought God and humanity together in His body. As the Good Shepherd, he wraps His arms around our broken lives and restores us to the harmony that exists in His love.
Archdiocese of Milwaukee
Penitential Rite at the beginning of Mass

As faithful, we come together united in Jesus Christ. As we gather, we acknowledge that we are human and we sin. Because we acknowledge and trust in God’s mercy are we able to admit our faults and failings. In order to put ourselves in the proper disposition for the celebration of the Mass we confess our sins and pray for forgiveness, acknowledging our complete dependence on Christ.

As the faithful call to mind their sins, during the Penitential Rite, the (arch)bishop will prostrate himself in front of the altar. The assembly will be invited to kneel.

Immediately before this moment, he will be handed the symbols of his episcopal ministry.

- When handed his crosier, he will lay it down.
- When handed his miter, he will lay it down.
- He will remove his pallium, he will lay it down.
- He will remove his episcopal ring, he will lay it down.
- Then he will prostrate himself as we all recite the Confiteor (I confess to you…).
- He will remain prostrate for the recitation of this prayer of contrition and the singing of the Kyrie (Lord, Have Mercy – Christ Have Mercy – Lord, Have Mercy).
Prayer Service for Healing

Opening Song: Here I am, Lord

Opening Prayer:

Priest/deacon: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. R. And with your spirit.

No one is far from you, O God. We come together in joy – mindful of the burdens we carry, the hurts and sorrows we have. We come together in gladness – never forgetting God’s love. We come together with praise – for each other and those who assist us on this journey.
No one is far from you O God and we call upon your power in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

1st Reading:

Isaiah 59:6b-8, 15-18

Their webs cannot serve as clothing, nor can they cover themselves with their works.
Their works are evil works,
    and deeds of violence come from their hands.
Their feet run to evil,
    and they are quick to shed innocent blood;
Their thoughts are destructive thoughts,
    plunder and ruin are on their highways.
The way of peace they know not,
    and there is nothing that is right in their paths;
Their ways they have made crooked,
    whoever treads them knows no peace.

Honesty is lacking,
    and the man who turns from evil is despoiled.

The LORD saw this, and was aggrieved that right did not exist.
He saw that there was no one,
    and was appalled that there was none to intervene;
So his own arm brought about the victory,
    and his justice lent him its support.
He put on justice as his breastplate,
    salvation, as the helmet on his head;
He clothed himself with garments of vengeance,
    wrapped himself in a mantle of zeal.
He repays his enemies their deserts,
and requites his foes with wrath.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 142

R: You, O Lord, are my refuge

With a loud voice I cry out to the LORD;
with a loud voice I beseech the LORD.
My complaint I pour out before him,
before him I lay bare my distress. R
When my spirit is faint within me,
you know my path.
In the way along which I walk
they have hid a trap for me. R
I look to the right to see,
but there is no one there who pays me heed.
I have lost all means of escape;
there is no one who cares for my life.
I cry out to you, O LORD:
I say, “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.” R Attend to my cry,
for I am brought low indeed.
Rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are too strong for me. R Lead me out of my prison,
that I may give thanks to your name.
The just shall gather around me
when you have been good to me. R

Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

The Lord heals our wounds and strengthens us in our weakness; let us pray as Christ has taught us:

All: Our Father…

Blessing and Dismissal:

Lord God,
your own Son was delivered into the hands of the wicked, yet he prayed for his persecutors and overcame hatred with the blood of the cross.
Relieve the suffering of those present today (or name);
grant them (him/her) peace of mind and a renewed faith in your protection and care.

Protect us all from the violence of others,
keep us safe from the weapons of hate,
and restore to us tranquility and peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

May God bless us with his mercy, strengthen us with his love, and enable us to walk in charity and peace. R. Amen.

430 The personal experience of a crime, political oppression, or social oppression can be traumatic and not easily forgotten. A victim often needs the assistance of others, and no less that of God, in dealing with this experience.

431 This blessing is intended to assist the victim and help him or her come to a state of tranquility and peace.

432 These orders may be used by a priest or a deacon, and also by a layperson, who follows the rites and prayers designated for a lay minister.

A. ORDER OF BLESSING

INTRODUCTORY RITES

433 When the community has gathered, a suitable song may be sung. After the singing, the minister says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All make the sign of the cross and reply:

Amen.

434 A minister who is a priest or deacon greets those present in the following or other suitable words, taken mainly from sacred Scripture.

May the grace and peace of Christ be with you.

And all reply:

And with your spirit.

435 A lay minister greets those present in the following words:

May the Lord grant us peace, now and forever.

R. Amen.

436 In the following or similar words, the minister prepares those present for the blessing.

Throughout history God has manifested his love and care for those who have suffered from violence, hatred, and oppression. We commend N. to the healing mercy of God who binds up all our wounds and enfolds us in his gentle care.

READING OF THE WORD OF GOD

437 A reader, another person present, or the minister reads a text of sacred Scripture.

Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the holy gospel according to Matthew:

10:28-33

Do not fear.

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

438 Or:

Isaiah 59:6b-8, 15-18—The Lord is appalled by evil and injustice.

Lamentations 3:1-24—I am one who knows affliction.

Lamentations 3:49-59—When I called, you came to my aid.

Micah 4:1-4—Every person shall sit undisturbed.

Matthew 5:1-10—The beatitudes.

Matthew 5:43-48—Love your enemies, pray for those who persecute you.

439 As circumstances suggest, one of the following responsorial psalms may be sung, or some other suitable song.

R. The Lord is my strength and my salvation.

Psalm 140

Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men; preserve me from violent men, From those who devise evil in their hearts, and stir up wars every day. R.

Save me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from violent men Who plan to trip up my feet— the proud who have hidden a trap for me; They have spread cords for a net; by the wayside they have laid snares for me. R.

Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; further not their plans. Those who surround me lift up their heads; may the mischief which they threaten overwhelm them.

I know that the LORD renders justice to the afflicted, judgment to the poor. Surely the just shall give thanks to your name; the upright shall dwell in your presence. R.

Psalm 142:2-3, 4b-5, 6-7

R. (v. 6) You, 0 Lord, are my refuge.

Psalm 31:2-3a, 4-5, 15-16, 24-25

R. (v. 6) Into your hands I commend my spirit.
As circumstances suggest, the minister may give those present a brief explanation of the biblical text, so that they may understand through faith the meaning of the celebration.

INTERCESSIONS

The intercessions are then said. The minister introduces them and an assisting minister or one of those present announces the intentions. From the following those best suited to the occasion may be used or adapted, or other intentions that apply to the particular circumstances may be composed.

The minister says:

Let us pray to the Lord God, the defender of the weak and powerless, who delivered our ancestors from harm.

R. Deliver us from evil, O Lord.

Assisting minister:

For N., that he/she may be freed from pain and fear, we pray to the Lord. R.

Assisting minister:

For all who are victims of crime/oppression, we pray to the Lord.

R. Deliver us from evil, O Lord.

Assisting minister:

For an end to all acts of violence and hatred, we pray to the Lord. R.

Assisting minister:

For those who harm others, that they may change their lives and turn to God, we pray to the Lord. R.

After the intercessions the minister, in the following or similar words, invites all present to sing or say the Lord's Prayer.

The Lord heals our wounds and strengthens us in our weakness; let us pray as Christ has taught us:

All:

Our Father...

PRAYER OF BLESSING

A minister who is a priest or deacon says the prayer of blessing with hands outstretched over the person to be blessed; a lay minister says the prayer with hands joined.

Lord God, your own Son was delivered into the hands of the wicked, yet he prayed for his persecutors and overcame hatred with the blood of the cross. Relieve the suffering of N.; grant him/her peace of mind and a renewed faith in your protection and care.

Protect us all from the violence of others, keep us safe from the weapons of hate, and restore to us tranquility and peace.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

As circumstances suggest, the minister in silence may sprinkle the person with holy water.
CONCLUDING RITE

A minister who is a priest or deacon concludes the rite by saying:

May God bless you with his mercy,
strengthen you with his love,
and enable you to walk in charity and peace.

R. Amen.

Then he blesses all present.

And may almighty God bless you all,
the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

A lay minister concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying:

May God bless us with his mercy, strengthen us with his love,
and enable us to walk in charity and peace.

R. Amen.

It is preferable to end the celebration with a suitable song.
B. SHORTER RITE

447 All make the sign of the cross as the minister says: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All reply:

Who made heaven and earth.

448 One of those present or the minister reads a text of sacred Scripture, for example:

So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

449 Or:

Isaiah 59:6b-8, 15-18—The Lord is appalled by evil and injustice.
Lamentations 3:1-24—I am a man who knows affliction.
Lamentations 3:49-59—When I called, you came to my aid.
Matthew 5:1-10—The beatitudes.

450 A minister who is a priest or deacon says the prayer of blessing with hands outstretched over the person; a lay minister says the prayer with hands joined.

Lord God, your own Son was delivered into the hands of the wicked yet he prayed for his persecutors and overcame hatred with the blood of the cross.

Relieve the suffering of N.; grant him/her peace of mind and a renewed faith in your protection and care.

Protect us all from the violence of others, keep us safe from the weapons of hate, and restore to us tranquility and peace.

Closing Song: How Can I Keep From Singing
O, Lord....

Make me cynical enough for Schadenfreude, and take away this horror and nausea I feel.

Help me to believe (even if it’s not true)
that it has all been worth it,
and that after all this time

and all this pain
there really is an institution somewhere that gets it.

And, Lord, having allowed your Church
to struggle on this sinful cross, you saw that even this did not communicate to our culture
the outrage you feel.

So now you have taken on our very most sacred cow...
College Football.
Will the cries of the children be heard above the roar of the crowd?

Finally, Lord,
forgive me for this poem.
I'm just sad,
and angry.
Today I am not capable of anything more.

Amen.
