

General Intercessions for August 26-27

That through our concern and solidarity, the Church in New Orleans and Biloxi will be able to rebuild so as to be a sign of hope in a struggling region.

We pray to the Lord . . .

For the priests, deacons, and religious of New Orleans and Biloxi, that their continued service to the people of God will bear great fruit.

We pray to the Lord . . .

For the people of New Orleans and Biloxi, for those who have returned and for those still in exile, that the love and solidarity of their brothers and sisters will help them know the Church as a true home and harbor of hope.

We pray to the Lord . . .
