O God, author of the Sacraments and bestower of life, we give you thanks for your ineffable goodness, for in the ancient covenant you foreshadowed the mystery of sanctifying oil and in the fullness of time you willed that it might shine forth uniquely in your beloved Son. O God, author of the Sacraments and bestower of life, we give you thanks for your inef fable goodness, for in the ancient covenant you foreshadowed the mystery of sanctifying oil and in the fullness of time you willed that it might shine forth uniquely in your beloved Son. And when your Son, our Lord, had saved the human race through the Paschal Mystery, he filled your Church with the Holy Spirit, and wonderfully endowed her with heavenly gifts, so that through her the work of salvation in the world might be brought to completion. From that time onward, through the sacred mystery of Chrism you have so bestowed the riches of your grace upon all humanity, that your sons and daughters born again in the cleansing waters of Baptism, are strengthened by the anointing of the Spirit and, conformed to your Christ, they share in his prophetic, priestly, and king-ly of-fice.

All the concelebrants extend their right hand toward the Chrism until the end of the prayer, without saying anything.

Therefore we beseech you, O Lord, that by the power of your grace this mingling of grace and oil may become for us a sacrament of your blessing. Pour out in abundance the gifts of the Holy Spirit on our brothers and sisters anointed with this oil; adorn with the splendor of holiness the places and things signed by sacred oils; but above all, by the mystery of this oil, bring to completion the growth of your Church, until she reaches that measure of fullness in which you, resplendent with eternal light, will be all in all with Christ in the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. R. Amen.
