

Looking to promote vocations?

To get the conversation started? ...

...You Could Make a Difference

Consider "You Could Make a Difference," a 17-minute video/DVD featuring two priests and three sisters as they work around the country. The video is produced by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Office for Media Relations. Executive Producer: Sister Mary Ann Walsh, RSM. It is designed for parish groups, youth ministry and those promoting vocations. A study guide and more information can be found at www.usccb.org/vocations/videodvd.htm.

"This is what parishes have been asking for! Something for youth groups, something for everyone!"

Bishop Blase Cupich, Chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Committee on Vocations.

"Here's something people who promote vocations have been waiting for!"

Anthony Plaia, past president, USA Council Serra International

Each video/DVD is in English and Spanish. Videographers include the award-winning Digital Shooters Inc., who traveled the USA for the It All Starts With Faith campaign. The vocation question comes to life in the work of Brother Patrick Cassidy, F.S.C. in Jersey City, New Jersey; Sister Janet Gildea, SC and Sister Peggy Deneweth, SC, in El Paso, Texas; Sister Mary Claudina Sanz, OSP, in inner-city Baltimore; and Father Agustin Mateo in Washington, DC.
