MY DEAR CATHOLIC PEOPLE:

Each parish is part of the Church Universal; it is the Catholic Church in a particular place. The bishops of the United States created the national collections so that, by combining resources, we can more effectively carry out our mission as Catholics. Each of these important collections is worthy of your support. Each collection represents our community of faith at work in the world, saving souls and improving lives.

I encourage you to view the national collections in the light of stewardship and of sharing. God has given us our life and our prosperity, all we need and more. It is right and just that we give something back through these collections, helping people in our own country and around the world to live better and to grow in the love of Jesus.

The brief descriptions in this brochure will explain who benefits from your gift to the national collections. More detailed information is available on their websites, as noted.

As always, the bishops are most grateful for your generosity.

MOST REV. WILLIAM S. SKYLSTAD
President
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Why do we have NATIONAL COLLECTIONS?

STEWARDSHIP: THE GIFT OF GIVING

The bishops of the United States have established the national collections to support the Church’s works of social justice, evangelization and education, both domestically and around the globe.

Jesus reminds us that the two greatest commandments are to love God with our whole heart, our whole mind, and our whole soul; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. The national collections offer us an opportunity to help our neighbors in the light of the Gospel. In doing so, we act as faithful stewards of the gifts God has given us.

Through our parishes, every Catholic participates in a global community of faith. The national collections are a powerful expression of this community. Our contributions help people across the street and around the world, people who struggle to practice the faith, people who live in great need.

GREAT IS THE GENEROSITY YOU SHOWED ME TODAY . . . MAY THE LORD REWARD
YOU GENEROUSLY FOR WHAT YOU HAVE DONE THIS DAY.

Twenty-five percent of the CCHD collection stays in the diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects; seventy-five percent supports national grant and education programs. CCHD helps break the cycle of poverty not just for one day, but for a lifetime.

Catholic Home Missions Appeal
NATIONAL DATE: Last Sunday in April
WEB SITE: www.usccb.org/hm

There are many places right here in the United States and in its overseas dependencies where the Church is poor, communities are scattered, and priests are few. Money given to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA) helps Catholic communities across America survive and thrive by underwriting evangelization, religious education, education for future priests, training for lay ministers, and poor parishes that would have to close their doors without outside help.

The CHMA helps strengthen the Catholic Church in America.

Aid to the Church in Central and Eastern Europe
NATIONAL DATE: Ash Wednesday

While the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union endured decades of communist oppression, the Church suffered grave wounds to its spiritual life and its ability to live as One Church. Through the Collection to Aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe (AEE), Catholics can now build bridges to these countries, spread God’s Word over vast areas with modern communications media, train Church leaders of tomorrow, help needy families materially and spiritually, rebuild churches in disrepair, and support those sisters and brothers who have suffered for the faith.
