- PovertyUSA website
www.PovertyUSA.org and www.PobrezaUSA.org
This website is an initiative of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, the domestic anti-poverty program of the Catholic bishops in the United States. These items are particularly relevant to this lesson:
 - ❖ Poverty Tour: Living in Poverty USA (www.povertyusa.org/poverty-resources/audio-and-video/) Learn what it's like to live at the poverty line by accompanying one family that is struggling to survive.
 - ❖ Poverty Quiz (www.povertyusa.org/poverty-resources/quiz/) How much do you know about poverty in the United States? Take the Poverty Quiz to find out.
- ❖ Catholic Campaign for Human Development: The State of Poverty in America
www.facebook.com/povertyusa
Join us on Facebook in the fight against poverty.
- ❖ United States Census Bureau
www.census.gov/hhes/www/poverty/about/overview/index.html
This is a quick overview of the most recent poverty statistics in the United States. This site also contains the most current poverty facts, descriptions of how poverty is measured and statistical and historical tables.
- ❖ Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development www.usccb.org/about/justice-peace-and-human-development/
The Department of Justice, Peace and Human Development (JPHD) works on behalf of the United States Catholic Bishops to share and apply Catholic social teaching on domestic and international issues.
