

Location: Our Lady of the Rosary Parish Hall, Boise
Cost: $ 40/person before Oct 5; $50 after Oct 5. Deadline to register: October 12

SCHEDULE

Friday, October 19, 2018

- 6:00 pm Registration opens
- 6:45 pm Welcome and Introductions
- 7:00 - 8:00 pm Reflective history and impact of Humanae Vitae on the Church and culture
Speaker: Dr. Susan Selner-Wright
- 8:00 to 9:30 pm Wine & Cheese Reception

=====

Saturday, October 20, 2018

- 8:00 am Check in/Registration/Continental breakfast
- 8:40 am Morning Prayer
- 9:00 am A Biblical Vision of the Human Person: Theology of the Body and Humanae Vitae -
Theological Anthropology Talk Speaker: Sister John Mary Sullivan, FSE
- 9:45 am Table discussion
- 10:15 am Break

10:30 am The Cultural Impact of Humanae Vitae—the connection between theology and pastoral life of the Church -- Connecting Theology to Pastoral Care

Speaker: Father Caleb Vogel, St. Paul's, Nampa

11:15 am Table discussion

11:45 am Break

12:00 Lunch and a walk outside

1:00 pm The impact of Humanae Vitae on sexual confusion and sexual identity issues -- Diagnosing and preparing to address these issues at the parish/family level

Speaker: Dr. Susan Selner-Wright

1:45 pm Table Discussion

2:15 pm Break

2:30 pm Concurrent Sessions

- Embracing good psychological/pastoral practice in ministry regarding the issues surrounding marriage, family, respect life and aging ministries—respecting and defending the Church's teachings in the light of the pastoral needs of today

Speaker: Ruth Hayes-Barba

- The Science around FABMs and importance of this teaching this in marriage preparation and enrichment formation

Speakers: Deacon Verne and Linda Geidl,

- Living Fruitfulness in a Barren World: Witness Couple sharing the importance H.V.

Speakers: David and Wendy Behrend

- Hispanic Cultural Reality and Humanae Vitae Speaker: Maite Lizaur

3:15 pm Table Discussion

3:45 pm Break (snacks)

4:00 pm Where do we go from here? Building a pro-family/pro-life culture of life in our parishes

Speaker: Jay Wonacott

4:15 pm Fill out Evaluation Sheets

4:30 pm Quiet Time in the Chapel (Adoration) to ready oneself for Mass or walk outside quietly

5:00 pm Concluding Mass - join congregation for regular 5 pm Mass