

LET'S TALK

Religious Freedom Conversation Starters

Small community gatherings are a great, simple way to build the life of our Church. They are also important for a healthy civil society. Here are some ideas for kick starting a small-group conversation about religious freedom.

Conversation Starters

- How is religious freedom related to other freedoms and civil rights?
- How have you seen people of faith contribute to the common good of society?
- Why should religion have a voice in the public square?
- How can you, your family, and your parish contribute to the common good in your own community?
- How is religious freedom challenged in contemporary American culture?
- Is religious discrimination tolerated in our country today? If so, where and how?
- What can Catholics do to foster religious freedom today?
