

TENDING THE VINEYARD

Stewardship of Religious Property

Educational Sessions for Strategic Property Planning

SESSION 3

Examples of Good Questions to Ask When Interviewing Outside Professionals

- 1. What are the major things you've learned working with religious institutes?
- 2. If you work with other groups too, what have you found to be the major differences between those groups and religious institutes?
- 3. What special gifts or traits related to our needs do you have that others we're talking to may not?
- 4. What do you see as being most essential to developing a working team?
- 5. How effective are you at establishing a good working team?
- 6. What did you learn from an experience when working with a team didn't go well?
- 7. What is most motivational for you in this work?
- 8. How does your leadership style complement working with a motivated group of others who too are leaders?
- 9. What makes this project attractive to you?
- 10. What do you find that you are most grateful for when you work with other groups?
- 11. What adjustments have you made in your work with religious institutes based on feedback you received from the groups with whom you've worked?
- 12. What do you find to be most key to success in working with religious institutes?
- 13. What is your approach/philosophy about engaging younger members in a special way?

