Terms and Conditions for Coverage of the Event:

Media covering Journeying Together should be aware that a credential will allow you to access the main plenary hall and the media center, during the dates of June 23-26. The plenary sessions of the gathering will be open for media coverage, but individual breakout sessions will be closed. All requests to interview bishops, staff and other participants must be submitted through the USCCB staff and volunteers who are on site at the Media Center. There will be locations provided for conducting TV, radio, and print interviews. All credentialed media are required to abide by regulations of the hotel and the rules set by the USCCB for the event. Please submit this form, and any questions you may have to: journeytogether@usccb.org or mguilarte@usccb.org
