Thirty-two states and the District of Columbia have legislation that provides some form of financial assistance to parents to help them choose a private or faith-based education for their children. Based on the average public school per pupil cost of $14,455, Catholic schools provide at least 22.7 billion dollars a year savings for the nation.