

WEEK 3

Call to Family, Community, and Participation

7 weeks of Easter
themes of Catholic Social Teaching

At the Easter vigil, we both celebrate baptism of new members of the Body of Christ and remember our own baptisms. In Baptism, we receive a “vocation to holiness,” which is “intimately connected” to our membership in the “Communion of Saints,” which strives to make present the “Kingdom of God in history.”

Help Us Build Communities in God’s Vision of Justice

Holy Spirit,
We praise and thank you!
You anoint us to bring glad tidings to the poor proclaim liberty to captives recover sight for the blind free the oppressed and build communities in keeping with God’s vision of justice.
Show us how to be light of the world
salt of the earth
seeds that sprout love and leaven that infuses humanity with the desire to promote human dignity and solidarity.

Help us to listen so that those in poverty can lead our efforts to proclaim a more hopeful vision liberate captives from injustice heal the blindness of the powerful free us all from self-centeredness and build community to overcome poverty.
Amen.

“Local individuals and groups can make a real difference. They are able to instill a greater sense of responsibility, a strong sense of community, a readiness to protect others, a spirit of creativity and a deep love for the land. . . . Social problems must be addressed by community networks and not simply by the sum of individual good deeds.”

Pope Francis, Laudato Si’, nos. 179, 219

Sacred Scripture

“This is the commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.”

1 John 4:21

Sacred Tradition

“The common good requires the social well-being and development of the group itself... It should make accessible to each what is needed to lead a truly human life: food, clothing, health, work, education and culture, suitable information, the right to establish a family, and so on.”

Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1908
